Crown Point Historic Preservation Commission

As we enter spring and the upcoming summer, The Crown Point Historic Preservation Commission would like to remind all residents and business owners within the Holley Residential Historic District, Courthouse Square Historic District, Sunnyside Residential Historic District and the Eastside Residential Historic District, that any exterior changes or changes visible from the street must follow the design guidelines specific to each historic district. For properties within the above historic districts the City of Crown Point requires a Certificate of Appropriateness to be issued for exterior changes including, but not limited to, roofs, windows, doors and painting. If you have questions about proposed work, where it requires approval from the Historic Preservation Commission, Historic Design Guidelines or applications for a Certificate of Appropriateness, you may contact Tiffany Tolbert of Indiana Landmarks, (219) 947-2657 or Greg Falkowski at the Crown Point Planning Department, (219) 661-5039.

Crossing Guard Supervisor Glen Kirk will be retiring this month from the City of Crown Point. He began as a Substitute Crossing Guard on August 19, 2003. Glen was then put in charge of the Crossing Guard Division as a Supervisor. He was placed in charge of training new crossing guards and scheduling for the school year. Over the past seven years he assisted with the interviewing and hiring of crossing guards. Glen's departure will be sorely missed, as he was a very dedicated employee with a great work ethic.

The 2015 Crown Point Employee of the Month program is sponsored by the city, Mayor DF Uran, Crown Brewing and Franciscan Alliance. For further information about how to nominate an employee, contact Special Events at 662-3290.
